Purely Baroque - 60 mins

Bach - Sonata in C Major BWV 1033

Bach - From Cello Suite No. 2 BWV 1008

Scarlatti - Sonatas K.77 & K.25

Corelli - Sonata in F Major Op.5 No.4

Bach - Sonata in G Minor BWV 1020

This 60 minute programme features Baroque works arranged for saxophone and harp. Audiences are often astounded at the subtlety and range of colour this combination of instruments brings to this much-loved repertoire, originally written for flute, violin, keyboard and cello. This programme includes harp and saxophone solos.

Old & New

Bach - Sonata in G minor BWV 1020

Cockcroft - Kuku

Bach - Sonata in C major BWV 1033

Abbado - Red Ruth

-----
Andy Scott - Sonata for Sax and Harp

Bach - Sonata in Eb Major BWV 1031

Leith - Pushing my Thumb Through a Plate

Kovács - Sholem-alekhem, rov Feidman!

The saxophone was invented in the early 1840s, so all the original repertoire for the instrument has been written since then. In this programme you will hear Baroque works contrasted with contemporary works for saxophone and harp, including pieces by friends and colleagues of Huw and Oliver.
